India - Seminars to Reignite and Restore

SUPPORT RAISED

INDIA

GOAL

This project seeks to raise $2,100 for three years to provides seminars in pastoral care and evangelism.

SUMMARY

This project will provide seminars in pastoral care and evangelism that will help these leaders to grow the church and be accountable in reporting to the Convention of Banjara Baptist Churches. They will learn from and encourage one another so that they may go back to their ministries rededicated and enthusiastic with new ideas and goals.

DESCRIPTION

The Banjaras, also known as "Gypsies of India," are one of the largest people groups in the country. They have a thriving Christian community, with 40 churches and 200 prayer cells. Despite being committed to serve the Lord, however, their pastors and evangelists lack a solid theological foundation.

This project will be managed by Dr. Wilson Vinaya Kumar and the Rev. Hanuma Naik of the Convention of Banjara Baptist Churches. It is anticipated that this project will give the attendees a more solid theological foundation, improve their level of accountability and renew their commitment to establishing goals for the growth of their churches and prayer cells.
